What the future holds

unit 5 Lifestyle unit 6 The environment

Discuss:

- ▶ What do you think life in the future will be like fifty years from now? How will houses, transport and food be different from the way they are now?
- ▶ Do you think environmental problems will be worse by the end of the 21st century? Why/Why not?

Flick through the module and find...

- ▶ a brochure about an interesting exhibition p.71
- ▶ a semi-formal letter p.68 pp.60-61
- ▶ an article about what life in the future will be like
- ▶ a short text about long-distance running p.67
- ▶ short articles about problems in cities pp.78-79

In this module you will...

- ▶ talk about various aspects of modern life, life in the future and environmental issues
- ▶ learn how to refer to the future using appropriate tenses
- ▶ refer to possibilities and future or imaginary situations and their results
- ▶ learn how to express ability, obligation, permission, prohibition, absence of obligation, certainty and possibility, to make requests and deductions, and to give opinion or advice using appropriate modal verbs
- ▶ expand your vocabulary by learning words easily confused, collocations with set, nouns/verbs + prepositions, verbs starting with re, phrasal verbs and prepositional phrases
- ▶ become aware of differences between British and American English
- ▶ learn how to write a semi-formal letter based on prompts and an essay expressing your opinion
- ▶ acquire skills and strategies that will help you in exams

Unit 5 reading

1. PRE-READING

Discuss.

- What do you think cities will be like in the future?
- What are the advantages and disadvantages of working or studying at home?

2. READING FOR GIST

The magazine article on the right is about predictions made by a group of scientists about what life will be like in the future. Read the article quickly without paying attention to the missing sentences and compare the information in it with your answers to the questions in the previous activity.

3. RECONSTRUCTING A GAPPED TEXT

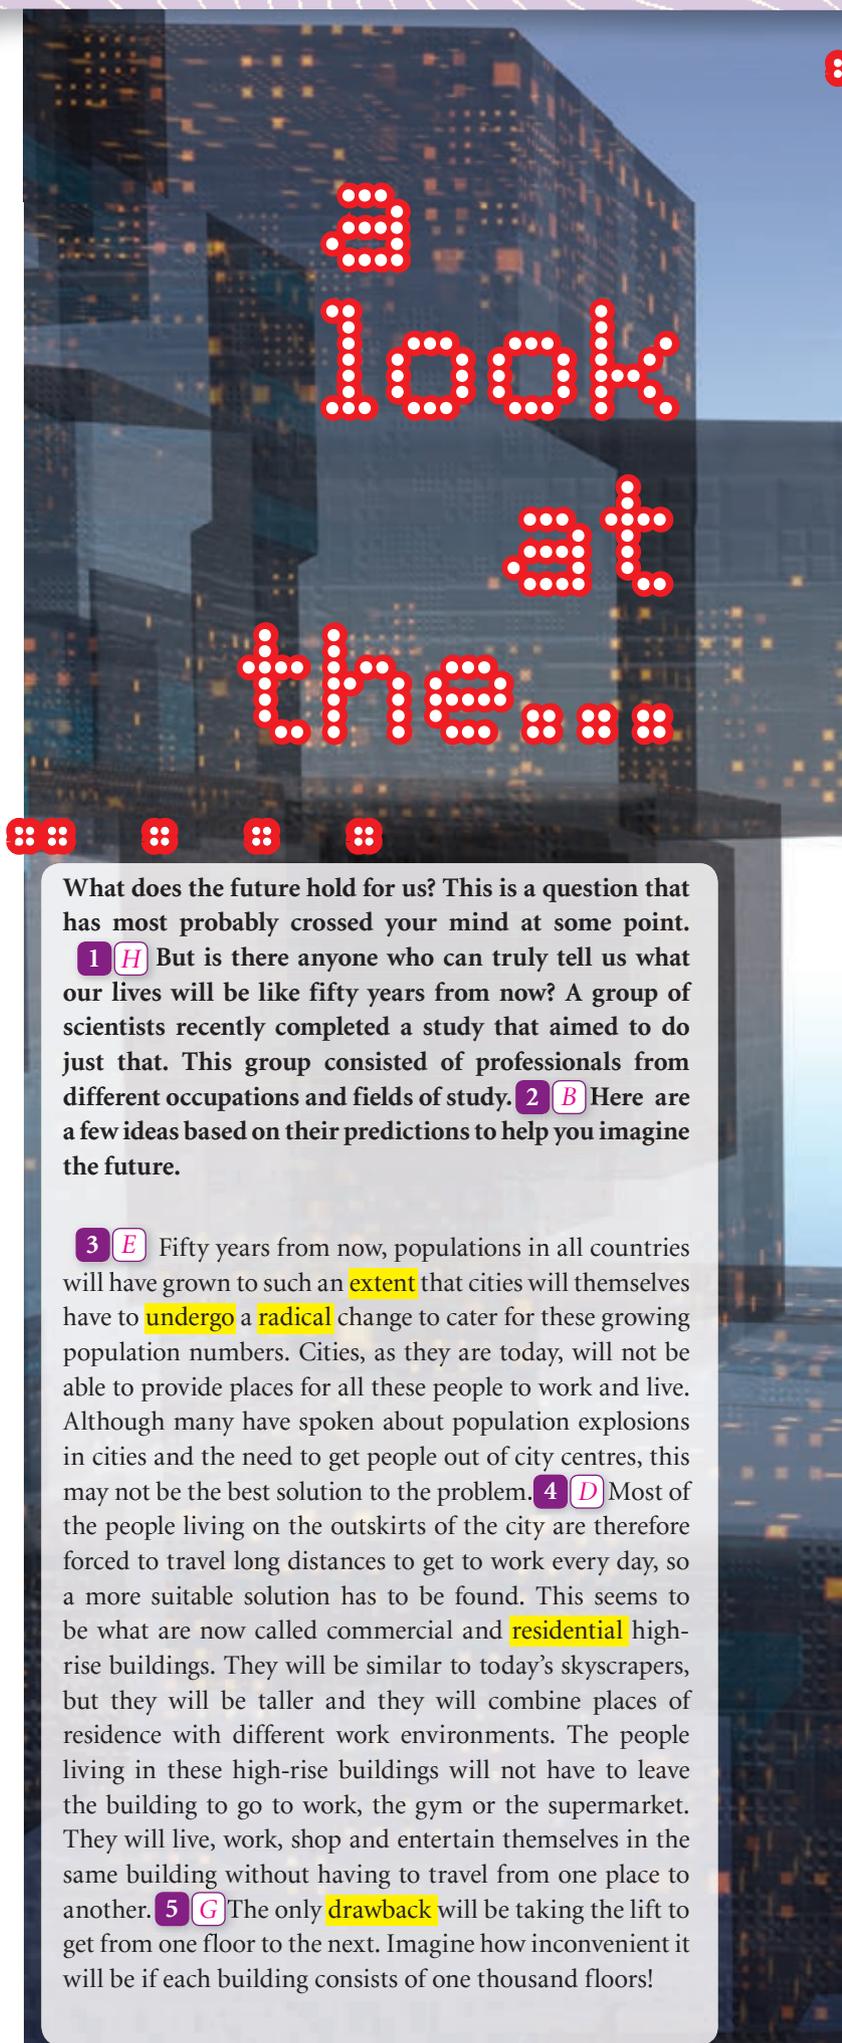

Seven sentences have been removed from the article. Choose from the sentences A-H the one which best fits each gap (1-7). There is one extra sentence which you do not need to use.

- A. Think of all the possible benefits of working or studying from home!
- B. Together they set out to discover and predict the future.
- C. There are also several disadvantages that one needs to keep in mind.
- D. Most public services and big businesses are located in or somewhere near the city centre.
- E. One aspect of the future that they focused on was what future cities will look like.
- F. So, you will be able to send one to take notes at your lecture and one to find information for an assignment you need to do while you stay at home to cook dinner.
- G. Think of how much time we could save if we didn't have to move around!
- H. The reason for this is that most of what we do today is aimed at some kind of benefit or outcome in the future.

4. GUESSING THE MEANING OF UNKNOWN WORDS

Match the highlighted words in the article with the meanings a-h. There are two extra meanings which you do not need to use.

- | | | |
|----------------|-----|--------------------------|
| 1. extent | (g) | a. travel regularly |
| 2. undergo | (h) | b. extreme |
| 3. radical | (b) | c. disadvantage |
| 4. residential | (e) | d. progress |
| 5. drawback | (c) | e. having private houses |
| 6. commute | (a) | f. stop |
| | | g. size |
| | | h. go through |

What does the future hold for us? This is a question that has most probably crossed your mind at some point.

1 (H) But is there anyone who can truly tell us what our lives will be like fifty years from now? A group of scientists recently completed a study that aimed to do just that. This group consisted of professionals from different occupations and fields of study. 2 (B) Here are a few ideas based on their predictions to help you imagine the future.

3 (E) Fifty years from now, populations in all countries will have grown to such an extent that cities will themselves have to undergo a radical change to cater for these growing population numbers. Cities, as they are today, will not be able to provide places for all these people to work and live. Although many have spoken about population explosions in cities and the need to get people out of city centres, this may not be the best solution to the problem. 4 (D) Most of the people living on the outskirts of the city are therefore forced to travel long distances to get to work every day, so a more suitable solution has to be found. This seems to be what are now called commercial and residential high-rise buildings. They will be similar to today's skyscrapers, but they will be taller and they will combine places of residence with different work environments. The people living in these high-rise buildings will not have to leave the building to go to work, the gym or the supermarket. They will live, work, shop and entertain themselves in the same building without having to travel from one place to another. 5 (G) The only drawback will be taking the lift to get from one floor to the next. Imagine how inconvenient it will be if each building consists of one thousand floors!

Those who do decide to live on the outskirts of the city will have an alternative work or study arrangement. They will work or study from home. Technology that exists today has already made this possible, but, by that time, it will be done by a large majority of individuals. 6 A For one, you will not have to commute to work or to school every day. Furthermore, you will be able to choose a work or study schedule that suits your own personal needs. Needless to say, you will have to be very responsible and pace yourself to meet the deadlines that are set by the company you work for, or the university you are attending. Video conferencing, which is already a reality, will ensure that contact with colleagues or teachers and fellow students is maintained. Some have spoken about virtual reality images of ourselves which we will send off to different locations to get things done for us. 7 F How convenient does that sound?

One thing is for sure. The future holds many surprises for us. We can make as many predictions as we like, but no one really knows what lies ahead. What we need to keep in mind is that what we do today affects the future, so we need to take great care to do it well.

5. POST-READING

Discuss.

- Would you like to live in a residential high-rise building like the ones described in the text? Why / Why not?
- How does the idea of having several virtual reality images of yourself sound to you?

Reporters without a special pass cannot / must not enter the stadium before the game.

B. Read the text below and complete the gaps. Use only one word in each gap.

RUN for a better life!

Doctors insist that we had (1) better become more effective in dealing with stress as soon as (2) possible, otherwise more and more of us (3) will develop stress-related health problems, such as high blood pressure, sleeplessness or heart disease. One particularly effective way (4) to fight stress is to take up long-distance running. Lifestyle analysts believe that before long this type of running will achieve a cult status as one of (5) the best ways of both dealing with stress and of providing the opportunity to be alone and to let whatever thoughts appear to simply go (6) in and out of the head. The point of long-distance running should (7) not be about how fast you can run or whether you might break a record, but ought to (8) be about personal growth. Enthusiasts claim (9) that once you start long distance running, you will soon see (10) the benefits. It is recommended that the running should be divided into two stages: in the first stage the point (11) is to keep moving until the stress that builds up (12) every/each day disappears, while the second stage aims at achieving an inner calm or peacefulness.

Unit 5 writing

WRITING A SEMI-FORMAL LETTER BASED ON PROMPTS

1. DISCUSS

- Do you think that your lifestyle is as healthy as it should be? Why / Why not?
- What things would you change in your life if you wanted to have a healthier lifestyle?

2. FOCUS ON CONTENT

Read the announcement and the response a student has written. Underline the sections in David's letter that correspond to the points circled in the announcement. Has David included all the necessary information in his response? Yes

Attention All Students

We are extending a challenge to all students to come up with a healthy lifestyle change for our school. Write a letter to Mr Garland giving your suggestions. Please describe in detail your suggestions and explain why you think it would be a good idea for our school. The Ministry of Education has recommended that we remove all vending machines with soft drinks and snacks from the school grounds; please include whether you agree or disagree with this recommendation and why. Finally, we are looking for volunteers to help promote the healthy lifestyle change to students in the school. Please state if you would be willing to volunteer your time.

Dear Mr Garland,

I am writing in reply to the announcement posted in the school cafeteria. I have a few suggestions concerning the healthy lifestyle change.

In my opinion, the best idea would be a healthier menu in the cafeteria. By offering students a healthy alternative that also tastes good, we could change our eating habits and live healthier lifestyles.

I would also like to say that I think that the Ministry's decision to remove all vending machines that sell soft drinks and snacks is great. In combination with replacing the menu in the cafeteria, it would make our school more health conscious.

With regards to promoting the healthy lifestyle change, I have spoken to some of the other students in my class and we would like to volunteer to help. state if willing to volunteer

I hope that you agree with my proposal and I look forward to hearing what changes will be made.

Yours sincerely,
David Huntington
